1. INTRODUCTION

This manual is for DFIRLABS (PTY) Ltd, with registration number 2014/097774/07. This company will be referred to as DFIRLABS.

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No.2 of 2000 ("the Act") is an Act that was passed to give effect to the constitutional right held by South African citizens, of access to any information held by the State or by another person, which is required for the exercise or protection of any right. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to which the request is made is obliged to give access to the requested information, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released. Therefore, the right of access to information and this Manual is only applicable to South African citizens, as defined in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa Act 108 of 1996.

It is important to note that the Act recognizes certain limitations to the right of access to information, including, but not limited to, limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy, commercial confidentiality, and effective, efficient and good governance, and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

This manual is available for inspection, free of charge, at the physical address of DFIRLABS, recorded in Part 2 below, as well as at dfirlabs.com.

2. THE PURPOSE OF THIS MANUAL IN TERMS OF THE PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT 2 OF 2000

This manual is compiled in accordance with Section 51 of the Act. It is intended to give a description of the records held by and on behalf of DFIRLABS; to stipulate grounds for refusal of access to any such records; to outline the procedure to be followed and the fees payable when requesting access to any of these records in the exercise of the right of access to information; with a view of enabling requestors to obtain records which they are entitled to in a quick, easy and accessible manner.

4. RECORDS OF DFIRLABS

The accessibility of the documents listed below may be subject to the grounds of refusal set out in Part 5 of this manual. The information is classified and grouped according to records relating to the following subjects and categories:

4.1. PERSONNEL RECORDS

"Personnel" refers to any person who works for or provides services to or on behalf of DFIRLABS and receives or is entitled to receive remuneration and any other person who assists in carrying out or conducting the business of DFIRLABS and includes, without limitation, directors (executive and non-executive), all permanent, temporary and part-time staff, as well as contract workers.

- Personal records provided by personnel
- Records provided by a third party relating to personnel
- Conditions of employment and other personnel-related contractual and quasi-legal records
- Internal evaluation records and other internal records
- Correspondence relating to personnel
- Training schedules and material

4.2. CLIENT AND CASE RELATED RECORDS

A "client" refers to any natural or juristic entity that receives services from DFIRLABS.

- Records provided by a client to a third party acting for or on behalf of DFIRLABS
- Records provided by a third party
- Records generated by or within DFIRLABS relating to its clients
- Exhibits and case data
- Case files

4.3. PRIVATE BODY RECORDS

These records include, but are not limited to, the records which pertain to DFIRLABS's own affairs.

- Financial records
- Operational records
- Information Technology
- Communication
- Administrative records
- Statutory records
- Internal Policies and Procedures
- Human Resources

4.4. OTHER PARTY RECORDS

- Personnel, customer or private body records which are held by another party, as opposed to the records held by DFIRLABS itself.
- Records held by DFIRLABS pertaining to other parties, including without limitation, financial records, correspondence, contractual records, records provided by the other party, and records third parties have provided about DFIRLABS's contractors / suppliers.
- DFIRLABS may possess records pertaining to other parties including, but not limited to, contractors, suppliers, and service providers and such other parties may possess records that can be said to belong to DFIRLABS.

4.5. RECORDS AVAILABLE IN ACCORDANCE WITH OTHER LEGISLATION

A requester may also request information that is available in terms of other legislation such as:

- The Companies Act 71 of 2008
- The Labour Relations Act 66 of 1995
- The Employment Equity Act 55 of 1998

- The Basic Conditions of Employment Act 75 of 1997
- The above is not an exhaustive list of statutes that may require DFIRLABS to keep records.

5. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

DFIRLABS may refuse a request for information on the following basis:

- Mandatory protection of all case related information and evidence of a client of DFIRLABS, or any other information in the possession of DFIRLABS by which case information could be reasonably inferred. This information or evidence will only be released pursuant to a subpoena or court order from a competent court.
- Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural or juristic person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person;
- Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:
 - Trade secrets of that third party;
 - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party; and
 - Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to DFIRLABS, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.
- Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement or legislation;
- Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
- Mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- The commercial activities of DFIRLABS, which may include:
 - Trade secrets of DFIRLABS;
 - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of DFIRLABS;

- Information which, if disclosed, could put DFIRLABS at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- A computer program which is owned by DFIRLABS and which is protected by copyright.
- The research information of DFIRLABS or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the institution, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage;
- Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

6. ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY DFIRLABS

Records held by DFIRLABS may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.

A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of or held by DFIRLABS. There are two types of requesters:

6.1. PERSONAL REQUESTER

A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester.

DFIRLABS will voluntarily provide the requested information, or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.

6.2. OTHER REQUESTER

This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties. However, DFIRLABS is not obliged to voluntarily grant access. The requester must fulfill the prerequisite requirements for access in terms of the Act, including the payment of a request and access fee.

7. REQUEST PROCEDURE

A requester requiring access to information held by DFIRLABS must complete the prescribed form, enclosed herewith as ANNEXURE 1, submit it to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or electronic mail address recorded in section 3 and pay a request fee and a deposit, if applicable.

The prescribed form must be completed with enough particularity to at least enable the Information Officer to identify:

- The record or records requested;
- The identity number of the requester;
- The form of access required, if the request is granted;
- The postal address or fax number of the requester.

The requester must also state that he requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state the nature of the right to be exercised or protected. In addition, the requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right.

DFIRLABS will process the request within 30 days, unless the requester has stated special reasons which would satisfy the Information Officer that circumstances dictating that the above time periods not are complied with.

The requester will be informed in writing whether access has been granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he must state the manner and the particulars so required.

If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.

If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.

The requester must pay the prescribed fee, before any further processing can take place.

8. DECISION

DFIRLABS will, within 30 days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.

The 30-day period with which DFIRLABS has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a large number of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of DFIRLABS and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30-day period. The Information Officer will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

9. REMEDIES AVAILABLE WHEN DFIRLABS REFUSES A REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

9.1. INTERNAL REMEDIES

DFIRLABS does not have internal appeal procedures. Therefore, the decision made by the Information Officer is final. Requesters who are dissatisfied with a decision of the Information Officer will have to exercise external remedies at their disposal.

9.2. EXTERNAL REMEDIES

A requester or a third party, who is dissatisfied with an Information Officer's refusal to disclose information or the disclosed information may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status for relief.

10. FEES

The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

- A request fee, which will be a standard fee; and
- An access fee, which must be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

When the request is received by the Information Officer, the officer will by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee (if any), before further processing of the request.

If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer will notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the Access fee which would be payable if the request is granted. Where DFIRLABS receives a request for access to information held on a person other than the requester himself/herself and the Information Officer upon receipt of the request is of the opinion that the preparation of the required record of disclosure will take more than 6 hours, a deposit is payable to the requester. The amount of the deposit is equal to 1/3 of the amount of the applicable access fee.

The Information Officer will withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated in the table below.

A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the requested form. Where a copy of a record needs to be posted the actual postal fee is payable.

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer will repay the deposit to the requester.

In terms of Regulation 8, Value Added Tax (VAT) must be added to all fees prescribed in terms of the Regulations. Therefore, the fees reflected below are VAT inclusive.
